The Lord is Risen, Alleluia!

From the Pastor's Desk

“dawn” meant the sun was up. Yet as soon as Jesus speaks and they follow his instructions, they

The accounts of Jesus’ appearances to the disciples after his resurrection often puzzle us, and today’s reading is no exception. There stands Jesus, within sight, yet the Apostles “did not realize that it was Jesus.” Hello?! I know we’re in the midst of a daylight saving time debate, but I’m fairly sure realize he is their Lord. Simon Peter wastes no time; he dives into the sea and makes for the shore. Peter and the disciples show us that while it is important to recognize Jesus, it’s what we do next that matters. As we learn in Acts, they boldly say his name despite the Sanhedrin’s warning, and most will go on to be martyred for the Church. Thanks to them, we recognize Jesus – in the Eucharist, in Scripture, and in Tradition, and on the crucifixes in our homes and churches. Peter challenges us to “dive in,” moving from faith to action. The specifics will differ for each of us, but we can study the lives of the Apostles and the saints to find inspiration.

As Catholics, we sometimes struggle with talking about Jesus. Which is why today’s reading from Acts challenges us. The Sanhedrin had warned the Apostles not to even speak Jesus’ name. Yet they don’t cower in fear or simply go back to the relatively quiet lives they led before they met Jesus. They rejoice to be found worthy “to suffer dishonor for the sake of [Jesus’] name.” Their commitment challenges us to be bold – not only with our words but with our actions as well. In the same way that teaching another person math or spelling helps us learn, witnessing to our faith by sharing it with others helps us deepen our faith and answer God’s call to be his disciple, striving to build his kingdom on earth.

This week, look up the feast days and read about the saint of the day. What can we learn from their example?

They are the following: Leoric John Morrison, son of Jacob and Kaden Morrison; Felicity Perpetua Garverick, daughter of Timothy and Meghan Garverick, and Rennah Graves Kreider, daughter of Reed and Amara Kreider. May they grow in age, grace, and wisdom as faithful followers of Christ!

50th Anniversary Wedding Mass: Were you married in 1972? In honor of your 50th Wedding Anniversary, there will be a special Mass and reception on Sunday, July 10, 2022, at 2:00PM at Good Shepherd Parish in Camp Hill. Bishop Ronald W. Gainer will be the celebrant. To receive an invitation from Bishop, please call the parish office.

Honoring Mary during May: Why do Catholics honor Mary during the month of May? Not simply because it is a long spiritual tradition going back ages, although it is. Not because there are any special graces connected to it, although there are. No, do it because Mary is Mother – your mother, my mother, everyone’s mother – and because she cares for all of us day-in-and-day-out without fail, interceding for us in even the tiniest matters. For that, she deserves an entire month in her honor. Our May crowning is scheduled for Sunday, May 1st after the 8:00AM Mass. Come, join us!!

Saint Bernard’s Garden Club: To keep our parish property looking its best during the summer months, families are asked to assist by taking a portion of our property and keeping it weeded and trimmed throughout the summer. It only takes a little of your time (a few times a month) to keep our parish looking well kept the whole summer long. A sign-up form is posted in the narthex and our parish is most grateful for your assistance.
