“I am the living Bread come down
from heaven, says the Lord;
Whoever eats this Bread
will live forever.”

From the Pastor's Desk

The Holy Eucharist does more than unite us to Jesus (a reality that is astonishing on its own). We profess in our creed that we're part of a communion of saints; every time we receive the Lord in Holy Communion, we're drawn into a closer union with him and with all those who are members of His Body. St. Paul tells us that in partaking of the Body and Blood of the Lord, “we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.” In a society where people are divided in so many ways, we're reminded of the Lord's burning desire – which He spoke of

at the Last Supper – that we would all be one as He and the Father are one. (Jn 17:21) In giving us His very self in the Holy Eucharist (His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity), Jesus has given us the means for achieving the unity He desires with us and for us. As we come forward to receive the Holy Eucharist this Sunday, let us ask the Lord for the grace to grow in love and unity with all those who share in His Sacred Body and Blood.

Like the Israelites wandering in the desert, our hearts long not only for physical bread, but for spiritual nourishment. Those who have come to know the Lord know that it is only the Bread that He gives that can satisfy the hungers of our hearts. One of the best descriptions for evangelization I have heard is “one beggar telling another where the food is.” We have access to food that offers life eternal. How can we keep such a feast to ourselves? Because the Holy Eucharist is at the heart of our Christian life, it ought to factor heavily into our evangelization efforts. Think about ways you can share how the hungers in your life have been satisfied by the Lord in this sacrament.

The Greek word “Eucharist” means thanksgiving. Today, take some time to thank the Lord for giving us His Body and Blood. You might consider praying with the Sequence (Lauda Sion) for today, a prayer of thanksgiving composed by St. Thomas Aquinas specifically for this solemnity. This beautiful sequence invites us to offer exuberant thanksgiving for this great gift: “Full and clear ring out your chanting, / Joy nor sweetest grace be wanting, / From your heart let praises burst forth.”

Remember the Sick of our Parish in your charity and prayers: Marietta McQuaid, Marie Dishman, Pat Widdowson, Gene Odatto, Annetta Round, Shirley Scotta, Samantha Strazisar, Ellen White, Louise Kline, Emerson Zahn, Virginia Klug, Jeff Galgon, Dawn Lowe, Mary Schoedel, Matt Morrison, Ron Utzig, Glenn Harshberger, Joe Rich, Yolanda McMillan, and all the long-suffering in our community and at Perry Village.

Online Information: You can access the weekly bulletin and other information at our parish website (www.stbernardsnbpa.org).

Deacon Robinson's Contact Information: Contact Deacon Robinson at his cell phone (602-6298) or deacon.robinson@analogyapologetics.com.

Quo Vadis Days: Might Jesus be calling you to priestly ministry in the Church? Quo Vadis Days are sponsored by the Diocese to help men (15-25 years old) discern where the Lord might be calling you in your vocation. These days take place at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland from June 21-25. If interested in attending, please contact Father Sharman.

Vacation Bible School 2026: Our Parish will host its annual Vacation Bible School from June 22nd to the 26th. We are trying a morning class this year, so the class will meet from 8:00AM to 11:30AM. The theme this year is “Catholic Kidz Camp: Assorted Saints and the Virtues.” If your children would like to attend, registration forms are posted on the bulletin board. For more information, please contact Jen Morrison morrisonfam10@gmail.com

CCD Catechist Needed: We need catechists to team-teach in our CCD program. Are you interested in working with the children to teach our Catholic faith? Just your willingness to pass along the faith to children is one of the most important characteristics of a good catechist. All classes are teamed with two catechists, and the younger classes also have an aide. I will meet with any interested person to discuss our program, the text we use, and the duties/responsibilities of our teachers and aides. Please contact Alice Vilk at alicevilk4@gmail.com. It takes many caring individuals to educate the students of our parish -- so come join us!

Summer Mass Schedule:
 Saturday Vigil Mass: 5:00PM
 Sunday morning Mass: 9:00AM.

Parish Picnic: Mark your calendars now for our Parish Picnic. It is scheduled for Sunday, August 2nd from 1:00 to 4:00PM at the parish pavilion. Families are asked to bring a vegetable dish, salad, or dessert. Our gracious Knights of Columbus will provide the meat course and drinks. It is a fun time for everyone and early enough in August for our college-bound youth to enjoy before heading off to school. Please sign up at the bulletin board if you plan to attend!

CCD Information: If there are children in our parish who plan to attend CCD in the fall, but who have not already registered, please let us know as soon as possible. If you are new to our program, a child must be 3 before September 1st to be accepted into the Pre-school class or age 5 by September 1st for the Kindergarten class. Your cooperation in this effort will allow us to secure an adequate number of teachers, prepare classroom areas, and purchase books and supplies. Early registration will reduce mayhem and confusion for the opening classes in September. Email Alice Vilk ASAP at 65vair@embarqmail.com.

Saint Bernard's Garden Club: Thank you to those who signed up to keep our parish property weeded throughout the summer. It only takes a little of your time (a few times a month) to keep our parish looking well kept the whole summer long. Your participation is appreciated by all of us.

Summer Church Dress: We have no church dress codes we can look to except the one dictated by the virtue of modesty and good taste. In general, we should avoid the following when dressing for church: Spaghetti straps/tank tops, bare backs or shoulders, sleeveless shirts or plunging necklines, tubes, skimpy skirts or shorts, low waist pants, Jersey shorts/gym wear, caps, or flip-flops. Thank you for your consideration!

We do not take a vacation from our vocation as Christians. Sunday Mass feeds our spirits!!
